His first and last thought was of the Association and its work. His last words, while on his death-bed, were: The American Pharmaceutical Association, It was my Life; it gave me a Profession! BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH Of late years Mr. Ebert devoted much time and thought to Historical Pharmacy in the A. Ph. A. and as Historian to the Chicago Veteran Druggists Association, in the Anniversary Volume of which appeared the following sketch: Mr. Ebert was born in Bavaria, Germany, December 23, 1840, and came to this country with his parents in 1841. His father was a horticulturist and gardener, and with his family settled in Chicago, where later young Albert received a part of his education in public and private schools. In October, 1853, he entered the drug store of F. Scammon and Co. , 140 Lake Street, Chicago, where he served for four years as an apprentice. He then entered the store of Henry Bronold, with whom he remained two years, familiarizing himself with German pharmacy, at the end of which period he returned to the old store, which, in the meantime, had changed owners and had became the store of Sargent and Ilsley. Here he took charge of the retail department, remaining until 1861. In 1859, on the organization of the Chicago...
