Asbury F. Lever (chairman) presiding. The Chairman. We have met this morning to receive suggestions in the matter of the wheat guarantee proposition. There are various representatives or the grain trade present. Mr. Reynolds, I understand you are to have charge of the hearings so far as the trade is concerned. Mr. Reynolds. Yes, sir. The Chairman. In the interest of economy of time, I will ask that each of the witnesses be permitted to make his general statement without interruption and then to adopt the plan of allowing the committee to cross-examine the witness. And Twill say to the witnesses, they realize, of course, this is the short session of Congress and the committee is very anxious to hasten the consideration of this matter, although we want you to feel free to give us all the information you have and to make any suggestions you feel will be worth while....
