The torch of Time with autumn splendor lights Your summer memories, who here have told Of battle-front and camp-fire comradery. Viewed through the mist of years, you see your past Aglow like autumn woods through autumn haze - The glamour and the glory more than tune s. Too soon - O wearers of the sacred blue - The frost that falls shall bare those golden boughs; But as one lays away the autumn leaves Between the pages of his book, so, here, Forever safe from storms that dull and fade; Forever safe from snow s oblivion; Forever to your children s children s eyes As bright and glory-hued as to your own, These martial memories of your youth are kept.
