The Male Body: Features, Destinies, Exposures

By Laurence Goldstein

The University of Michigan Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Male Body: Features, Destinies, Exposures, Laurence Goldstein, "The Male Body: Features, Destinies, Exposures" serves as an indispensable and fascinating source of knowledge about the male sex at a time when media attention to manhood has increased and when studies of masculinity have become a significant part of the academic curriculum as well as a popular topic of academic research. Subjects include the historical sources of the American body, adolescent and midlife bodies, bodybuilding, the bodies of popular icons such as rock stars and athletes, AIDS, the black body, and the variety of sexual identities endorsed and disdained by our culture. It may or may not be true, as Margaret Atwood asserts, that "Men's bodies are the most dangerous things on earth." But all of these texts affirm the necessity of knowing more about the status of masculinity at a time when feminist authors have made gender and power central themes in our understanding of ourselves and our society.Like its popular predecessor, "The Female Body: Figures, Styles, Speculations," this volume gathers together a remarkable range of voices and perspectives on this always-timely topic. The collection begins with essays by...
