iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 274 x 206 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We do not wage war as the world does; our weapons have divine power to demolish strongholds. Approaching spiritual warfare from a different perspective sheds light on what are truly unusual, and necessary weapons. A belt of Truth, the shoes of preparation of the Gospel of peace, the shield of faith; weapons familiar to the Christian from Ephesians 6, introduce us into a battle that is different. Sometimes understanding things is best done from a different perspective. It is time to see The Battle for what it is. It is time to wage war with the right weapons. Strongholds can be the enemy s attack on aspects of the Kingdom of God. They can also be a counterfeit of a Kingdom principle. Therefore, the Kingdom principle is a weapon against the counterfeit. How awesome that our God gives us principles for living that are also weapons against the enemy of our lives. What started as a teaching for a ladies weekend retreat in Rota, Spain, is now available in Bible study format for personal or group interaction. Start with an understanding of military tactics, review the spiritual armor listed in Ephesians 6. Uncover information about the enemy and his style. Discover that this enemy fights a different battle and we must recognize it and confront it in a very different way. Come with me and discover a lifestyle that is fully armored and battle ready. Changing your mind, your perspective, and your point of view is essential to every aspect of the Christian life. Unusual Weapons For An Uncommon Battle addresses changing your mind about the battle and the weapons and invites you to discover a whole new...
